

Living Out His Grace: What must I do to _____ the splendor of His marvelous _____?

Romans 11: 33-36 Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable his judgments, and his paths beyond tracing out!
³⁴ “Who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been his counselor?”
³⁵ “Who has ever given to God, that God should repay them?” ³⁶ For from him and through him and for him are all things. To him be the glory forever! Amen.

Acts 8:1-3; Acts 9:1-2

Living Out His Grace: God, the creator, has _____ me to worship Him so, I will _____ all that I am to Him.

Romans 12:1 Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God’s mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship

Isaiah 2:8 Their land is full of idols; the people worship things they have made with their own hands. (New Living Translation)

Exodus 34:14 You must worship no other gods, for the Lord, whose very name is Jealous, is a God who is jealous about his relationship with you. (New Living Translation)

“Worship is when you’re aware that what you’ve been given is far greater than what you can give. Worship is the awareness that were it not for God’s touch, you’d still be hobbling and hurting, bitter and broken. Worship is the ‘thank you’ that refuses to be silenced. Worship is a voluntary act of gratitude offered by the saved to the Savior, by the healed to the Healer, and by the delivered to the Deliverer. If you and I can go days without feeling an urge to say ‘thank you’ to the One who saved, healed, and delivered us, then we’d do well to remember what He did!” - Max Lucado, In the Eye of the Storm

Living Out His Grace: God wants me to enjoy His will for my life so, I will _____ God with all my heart, soul, strength and mind.

Romans 12:2 Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God’s will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.

Jeremiah 29:11 “For I know the plans I have for you,” declares the Lord, “plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.”

Luke 10:27 He answered, “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind’; and, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’”

Living Out His Grace: God wants to use me, so I will move from _____ to being available to _____ my church family.

Romans 12:3-5 For by the grace given me I say to every one of you: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the faith God has distributed to each of you. ⁴ For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, ⁵ so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.

“Why would someone who claims to love Christ want to lie buried in a church doing nothing except sitting on the receiving end of someone else’s ministry?” -David Swartz, The Magnificent Obsession: Seeking First the Kingdom of God

Ephesians 4:11-13 So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, ¹² to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up ¹³ until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

Living Out His Grace:

What must I do to recapture the splendor of His marvelous Grace? God, the creator, has created me to worship Him. I will surrender all that I am to Him.

God wants me to enjoy His will for my life. I will pursue God with all my heart, soul, strength and mind!

God wants to use me. I will move from selfishness to being available to serve my church family!
