

Here's what we all have in common . . .

1. You didn't choose your family's _____,
but you can choose to choose your family's
_____.
2. All families have _____ – some families _____ them.
3. Jesus came to _____ and give _____ to your family.
4. The New Testament presents a standard for the family that can only be achieved by _____.
¹ Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. ² "Honor your father and mother"—which is the first commandment with a promise— Ephesians 6:1-2

Submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Ephesians 5:21

Wives, submit yourselves to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. Colossians 3:18

Husbands, love your wives and do not be harsh with them. Colossians 3:19

Fathers, do not embitter your children, or they will become discouraged. Colossians 3:21

- Jesus invites every person to become a part of His _____.
But to all who did receive him, who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God.
John 1:12

Next Steps for November 1:

- ☐ Tell every member of your family you love them.
- ☐ Commit to pray regularly and honestly about your family matters.
- ☐ Choose relevant resources for your family at the HomeView center in the foyer.
- ☐ Bring a friend or family member next Sunday for week 2 of "familymatters."
