

“Through the Risen King of Glory”

Psalm 24/Hebrews 10

1. We should desire God’s presence, because he is the ultimate source of _____ and _____.

“It would seem that Our Lord finds our desires not too strong, but too weak. We are half-hearted creatures, fooling about with drink and sex and ambition when infinite joy is offered us, like an ignorant child who wants to go on making mud pies in a slum because he cannot imagine what is meant by the offer of a holiday at the sea. We are far too easily pleased.” - C.S. Lewis

2. _____ is the one who is worthy to enter into God’s holy presence.

For it was indeed fitting that we should have such a high priest (Jesus), holy, innocent, unstained, separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens. – Hebrews 7.26

3. We can enter God’s presence through the _____ of _____.

Therefore, brothers, since we have confidence to enter the holy places by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain, that is, through his flesh, and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. – Hebrews 10.19-22
